

The xm instant traffic and weather satellite is an invaluable source of information for the general public providing instant information needed to insure that traffic moves as smoothly as possible . In addition it helps commercial traffic by furnishing the information they need to make the safest and most effecient travel possible . In my opinion eliminating xm would definitely be a huge setback to the safe and effecient use of our highways .